JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

On March 26, 1958, the Junior Class presented a three-act mystery-comedy entitled "Who Dunit?" It was an interesting fantasy which concerned Alexander Arlington, a pompous myster writer who is murdered and does not know "who dunit?" Since Arlington does not want to live in heaven without knowing who the culprit is, he is sent to earth to re-live the last day of his life. A very entertaining play was built around this situation.

Our play was very well directed by Mrs. Joanne Osborne who was assisted by Mr. Leslie Canterbury. Mr. Canterbury supplied us with many unusual props.

SENIOR CLASS PLAYS

On Wednesday, November 19, 1958 the Seniors presented an evening of three one-act plays under the very fine direction of Mr. Robert Sarasin. The three plays were:

"Beware the Bear", a comedy which takes place at a summer camp for girls.

"Willy Velvet — Homicide Detective", a take-off on a radio detective story.

"Romantic Conspiracy", a comedy which takes its setting in the dormitory of a girls' college.

The High School choir under the direction of Mr. Douglas Edwards organized during the fall months to prepare for its Winter Concert. A comparatively large number of the members were inexperienced which made Mr. Edwards' task much more difficult, but the Winter Concert showed an energetic choir constantly gaining polish. The choir made its second appearance at the Annual Choir Festival during the early part of May. The choir received excellent comments for their fine performance. Later they displayed their talents at a concert given at Suomi College in Hancock. The Spring Concert was the last one for these seniors: Alberta LeGault, Sharon Hermanson, Mary Johnson, Carol Ahola, Ann Marie O'Leary, Judy Laitinen, Barbara Usimaki, Judy McClellan, Marianne Wargelin, Philip Klemett, James Kuzdrall, and John-Peter Stadius. Accompanist for the choir this year was Lois Rova.

Row 1: Sheila Klatzky, Lorraine Rodda, Elizabeth Klatzky, Lorraine Hilton, Nancy McKie, Margie Klein, Selina Suojanen.

Row 2: Vicky Maki, Marilyn Rautiola, Patricia Klein, Lou Ann Fleming, Carol Ahola, Marlene Rautiola, Sharon Hermanson, Joan Olson.

THE BAND

Row 3: Gerald Hellman, Dennis Carlson, Nancy Boardman, Roland Oinas, Sharon Dover, Sharon Riutta, Miriam Haapala, Mary Johnson.

The Hancock High School Band had a very active year. The organization began its academic activities during the fall by marching for several football and basketball games. Lou Ann Fleming capably led the group in these exhibitions.

The mid-winter concert was next on the agenda. After weeks of practice, the band performed well with such numbers as Barnum and Bailey's Favorite and Irish Tune.

In March a number of soloists from the band participated in the annual solo and ensemble festival in Marquette. The group did very well, gaining a number of first ratings.

On May 23, the annual Band Festival was held at the Calumet Armory with the H. C. H. band taking part as usual. The year was completed with the spring concert on May 25, thus bringing to a close the activities of the band.

The light that won't blow out

When you go into the world, you may acquire wealth in gold, lands, ships, or skyscrapers. This is wealth that you can lose overnite.

The education you have acquired is an asset—a light—that you can't "blow"! Even as you use it, it burns but brighter!
